PR in Travel

29 June 2022

ABTA, 30 Park Street, London SE1 9EQ

About the event

Now, more than ever, PR is an integral part of a travel business' communication strategy. As travel resumes, this seminar will guide you through the evolving media landscape including producing effective digital and social media campaigns, as well as using the more traditional print and broadcast outlets.

Attend this practical seminar to get the latest guidance on how to plan and deliver a successful PR campaign on all budgets; from identifying your aim to pitching your story to the press and delivering broadcast interviews.

Moderated by ABTA's Head of Media and PR, Emma Brennan, and with presentations from PR experts at FINN Partners and leading industry experts, attend this event to get up to speed on all the latest developments and opportunities in PR, and explore how to overcome emerging issues facing the industry.

Hear case study presentations from Kuoni, Intrepid and Thomas Cook on what made their campaigns successful and hear first hand from a national journalist and the trade press what they want from the PR team and what sets stories apart.

Take away useful tips and guidance on the most appropriate PR channels for your organisation and how you can best support your sales strategies in your PR and communications role.

Benefits of attending

- Discover trends and tools to create effective PR campaigns.
- Put your questions to a travel journalist and find out what they want from press releases and stories.
- Hear the strategies behind successful PR campaigns from within the travel industry.
- Understand how to factor sustainability into your PR campaigns.
- Gain insights into how social media and digital PR has evolved.
- Learn how to influence editorial and product placement in broadcast partnerships.
- Gain insight into successfully working with influencers.
- Network with other communications and PR professionals from travel and share solutions to common challenges.

Who should attend?

This training day is designed for those responsible for, and have experience in, PR and brand communications across travel business of all sizes, including:

- Communications teams
- PR teams, senior managers and team leaders
- Marketing teams
- Directors
