About the training

This practical online training has been designed for tour operators and travel agents who require an understanding of their legal obligations in light of the ongoing Coronavirus pandemic.

With travel restrictions constantly shifting and a new traffic light system from the Government, it is vital that you understand your obligations to your customers. Getting it wrong could put your customers and business at risk:

- Do you understand what green, amber and red destinations mean for your customers?
- Do you know the effect of FCDO and other advice on cancellations, refunds and compensation?
- Are you aware of different destination requirements and where to find up to date information?
- Have you undertaken all necessary health and safety auditing in destination?

When travel reopens, it is important that you review and update your business as usual practices:

- Are you confident that your contracts and paperwork are still fit for purpose?
- Are you up to date on the UK's latest trading agreements with the EU and how this impacts travel?
- Are you still compliant with data protection laws and are you aware of how to legally process sensitive data?

Join us at this practical training day to get comprehensive guidance on the key areas for your business to be ready as travel restarts.
