Search Marketing for Travel

16 October 2019
Hilton London Tower Bridge, 5 More London Place, Tooley Street, London, SE1 2BY

About the event

93% of online experiences begin with a search engine*. Ensure that you remain visible online by investing in search marketing.

ABTA's new practical training day will provide up-to-date guidance on search engine marketing, search engine optimisation (SEO) and online content strategies for travel businesses of all sizes.

As online behaviour continues to change, and search engines evolve, marketing professionals must understand the complex customer journey and put the user at the heart of their SEO strategy. Engaging content and well executed pay-per-click (PPC) advertising will help attract visitors to your website, whilst a poor digital experience can drive customers to your competitors.

Attend this one-day seminar to get practical guidance from digital marketing experts and hear travel industry case studies. How has SEO changed and where are the opportunities for travel businesses? Learn how to improve your SEO with an effective content strategy and maximise the effectiveness via paid advertising. Understand how to optimise your website and improve the online experience across desktop, mobile and in-app, providing a simple path to purchase for customers. Consider ways to review your current SEO strategy, measure and track your SEO and PPC and use this data to inform future campaigns.
