

Travel Law Seminar

2019 Sponsorship packages

Wednesday 22 and Thursday 23 May, 2019

Central London

ABTA's Travel Law Seminar, now in its 21st year, provides the essential update on legal, regulatory and policy developments in the sector.

This two-day event, which has taken place annually since 1999, attracts a senior audience spanning the full breadth of the mainstream and specialist travel sector including managing directors and senior managers, finance, operational and commercial directors and more.

In 2019, the conference will take place in the City of London with stunning views of St Paul's Cathedral. The programme is packed with two full days of content and is the leading event for understanding the regulatory issues impacting the travel sector.

The impressive speaker line-up includes key officials from government departments, legal experts, barristers, senior travel industry figures and senior members of the ABTA team.
