Travel Tax Briefing

23 October 2019 • Grant Thornton, 30 Finsbury Square, London, EC2A 1AG

About the event

ABTA's new Travel Tax Briefing will provide a comprehensive update on the latest tax issues facing finance departments within travel companies of all sizes. Stay up-to-date with changes in the world of tax and discuss solutions for your business.

Featuring sessions spanning indirect, income and corporate tax, this key event will address practical tax issues affecting businesses. Tailored for travel, get the latest on the hot topics facing businesses including VAT-TOMS, international tax, Making Tax Digital (MTD), IR35 and entrepreneurs' relief.

From April 2020, medium and large companies will be responsible for determining whether their non-payroll employees, including contractors, fall within the scope of IR35 legislation and are liable to pay a higher rate of tax. Ensure you are up to speed on what's required of your business and are prepared for the changes ahead.

Discuss the implications for tax as we prepare to exit the EU at the end of October. Take a timely look at how Brexit may affect VAT-TOMS with the content being tailored to reflect the ongoing negotiations.

Ensure that you are complying with the requirements of HMRC's Making Tax Digital programme and get practical guidance from the experts.

The briefing will run from 10:30am-3:40pm and will be followed by a short drinks reception. Receive an update on the 'hot topics' facing the travel industry in the morning. Network and discuss how these updates affect your businesses over lunch and learn how to address changes during an in-depth practical case study in the afternoon.

Benefits of attending

- Improve your understanding of the current tax issues facing travel businesses and prepare for changes ahead including TOMS and Brexit
- Get guidance on how to address key challenges through a practical travel case study
- Put your questions directly to travel tax experts and get solutions for your business
- Network with peers and speakers during lunch and a post-event drinks reception
